

Clarkson Grads

William J. Bow of Congers, top, and Donald H. Gabel of Pearl River, bottom, are among the 168 men receiving bachelor degrees from Clarkson College this month. Mr. Bow was granted the degree of bachelor of mechanical engineering, and Mr. Gabel the degree of bachelor of electrical engineering. A graduate of Congers High School in 1944, Mr. Bow served 15 months in the Air Corps before entering Clarkson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bow of Grant Avenue, Congers. The son of Mrs. Bessie H. Gabel of 57 North Main Street, Pearl River, Mr. Gabel graduated from Pearl River High School in 1943. He is a navy veteran, with two years service, and as an undergraduate was on the staff of the Integrator and Campus Station WNTC, and was a member of the Neutral Club.

